

U. S. REPELS NEW Foe SMASH

YANKEE FORCES REPULSE HEAVY HUN ONSLAUGHT

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, June 9.—Attacks by the Germans in the Marne sector have again been repulsed by the Americans, who inflicted heavy losses on the enemy. The French repulsed two attacks against Hill 204, west of Chateau Thierry, the first at 10 o'clock last night and the second at 3 o'clock this morning. French troops captured a wood south of Buziars last night.

A new German division, the Fifth Grenadier Guards, was identified by the Americans for the first time yesterday.

The artillery fire on the Toul front has slightly diminished in the past twenty-four hours. There has been little aerial activity.

It is understood that the entire American force participating in the second battle of the Marne will be decorated by the French government.

Except for lively machine-gun firing in the Bois De Belleau and intermittent artillery fire, the Marne sector was comparatively quiet today. The Americans have had a breathing spell and now declare themselves eager to get at the Germans again.

PARIS, June 9 (Havas Agency).—In an article in La Liberté, Lieut.-Col. Rousset says that American co-operation in the war is developing rapidly and brilliantly and is beginning to cause a deep impression beyond the Rhine, the more so as American resources are organized so as to supply 200,000 men monthly.

ENEMY'S INFANTRY ATTACKS ON TWENTY-FIVE MILE FRONT.

Teuton Hordes Hurlled Against Montdidier-Noyon Line Are Stopped After Desperate Fighting, Americans Repel Foe's Rushes.

PARIS, June 9.—In a new thrust, directed at the sector between Montdidier and Noyon, the Germans have succeeded in gaining ground along about a twenty-five mile front to a depth of about two and half miles at certain points, according to the War Office announcement.

The fighting was very heavy and the French offered a powerful resistance to the multiplied efforts of the enemy, and finally succeeded in checking the advance, particularly on the two wings.

LONDON, June 9.—"About to midnight-morning," says the Reuter correspondent at French headquarters, "the enemy advance on the Montdidier-Noyon line was confined to our advanced zone. Our principal line of resistance was not touched."

WASHINGTON, June 9.—Gen. Pershing's communique for Saturday, delayed in transmission until tonight, tells of unsuccessful hostile attacks northwest of Chateau Thierry, Friday night, in which the enemy lost heavily, without reaching the American lines at any point.

BERLIN (via London) June 9.—American troops in an attack northwest of Chateau Thierry were driven back with heavy losses, according to the official report from general headquarters today, and some prisoners were taken.

TWO ARE JAILED ON ESPIONAGE CHARGES.

Charges of violating the Presidential proclamation and the Espionage Act early today brought two men to the City Jail, to be held for the Federal authorities.

A. Mestro, an Austrian, 37 years old, was arrested by Patrolman Cook at Second and Los Angeles streets and held on suspicion of Espionage Act violation. He is charged by the police with having in his possession I.W.W. literature in Italian language and other papers which the police wish to investigate.

Antonio Sleg, 41 years old, a German, was arrested at No. 1227 1/2 East First street by Patrolman Hand following alleged remarks reflecting on the purpose of the alien registration. The man is further charged with having failed to register as an alien enemy.

STEAMER TORPEDOED, MAKES BRITISH PORT.

LONDON, June 9.—A Belfast steamship, torpedoed by a German submarine while bound from England, has reached an Irish port badly damaged. Three of the crew were killed by the explosion.

ONE KILLED, THREE ARE INJURED IN ACCIDENTS.

ONE woman was killed and three persons were seriously injured in automobile and street-car accidents shortly before midnight.

Mrs. Kamenetti Maki, 37 years old, of No. 501 Fourth avenue, received fatal injuries when she was struck by an automobile driven by F. G. Lebrecht of No. 101 South Boylston street, near the Elysian Park, on North Broadway. The woman was crossing the street with T. Terema, who lives at No. 607 South Westmoreland avenue, when the automobile struck them. Mrs. Maki suffered a fractured skull and died at the Receiving Hospital shortly after she was brought in. Terema had three broken ribs and other injuries. According to Lebrecht, he did not see the couple and had no warning of the accident until his fender struck their bodies. The Japanese claim the man was driving at excessive speed. Following the death of the woman, detectives from Central Station detained him for further investigation.

The other accident occurred at the end of the Homewood-avenue car line, where Rudolph Schaefer, 15 years old, and Edward Perkins, 17, of No. 1125 South Figueroa street, were struck by a street car while crossing the tracks. Both boys suffered fractures of the right leg and were given emergency treatment at the Receiving Hospital. The police are investigating the cause of the accident.

U-BOATS REPORTED BY WHALING SHIPS.

NEW BEDFORD (Mass.) June 9.—Two whalers which arrived here today reported they had been held up by a German submarine off Cape Hatteras. Capt. J. T. Gonsouves of the schooner A. M. Nicholson, said that on his pleading with the captain of the U-boat that he was a poor man and that the loss of his vessel meant ruin, he was allowed to proceed with his ship and cargo of sperm oil unharmed.

HIT HARD SAYS FOCH.

Allied Chief Gives Plan of War.

Battles Can Only be Won in End by Offensive, He Declares.

Holding the Enemy, not Advancing, Spells Defeat, His Opinion.

LONDON, June 9.—That battles can be won in the end only by the army which takes the offensive to the significant declaration made by Gen. Foch, commander-in-chief of the Allies, in an important article contributed by him to the weekly journal, The Field, in which he discusses the problem of the soldier and the way to victory.

"Modern warfare to arrive at its end and to impose its will on the enemy," says Gen. Foch, "requires, only one means—destruction of the enemy's organized forces."

"War undertaken and prepared this destruction by battle which brings about overthrow of the adversary, disorganizes his command, destroys his discipline, and nullifies his units as far as their fighting power is concerned."

Our first axiom must be that completely to achieve its object, a battle must not be purely defensive. A purely defensive battle, even well conducted, does not result in a victory and a vanquished. It is simply a game that must be begun over again.

"From this it is an obvious corollary that an offensive, whether started at the beginning of an action or whether it follows the defensive, can only give results and in consequence must always be adopted at the finish."

CANT STAND STILL.

"To maintain our position is not synonymous with being victorious and even prepares for a defeat. If we remain where we are and do not take the offensive to the direction of attack, to guard against the plans of the enemy and prevent him from carrying out the same maneuver, we must undertake to carry on and sustain numerous combats, each with determined aim."

But since there remains no doubt that decisive attack is the very key-stone of a battle, all other actions which make up a battle must be envisaged, considered, organized, provided with forces in the measure in which they are necessary and for which, in consequence, it is essential that there shall be the maximum reserve force possible of troops of maneuver. The reserve—that is to say, the prepared blow—is organized and kept carefully instructed to execute the single act of battle from which results are expected, namely, the decisive attack.

Reserves must be husbanded with the most extreme parsimony so that the blow may be strong enough to make the blow as violent as possible. Let loose at the finish, with-

AMERICA MUST STRANGLE ENEMY GIANT TO DEATH

Courage at Home to Help Heroes at Front in Long War of Attrition Needed, Says Williams.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.
The Times Own War Correspondent in France.
[ATLANTIC CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WESTERN FRONT IN FRANCE, June 8.—It begins to look like the Germans had shot their wad. They may hold out a long time yet, but their four years of utmost endeavor find them no nearer to victory than when they started.

During the high tide of German rushes the British and French held them. Now it is up to the Americans to slowly strangle the Prussian giant and make him give back all plunder taken.

If the people at home are as courageous as the men in the ranks America will win the war without question. Our men have proved in local actions what they can do on a larger scale. Nothing daunts them. Machine gunners fought in an inferno and the marines charged and whipped the enemy over ground where shells threw up geyers of earth and shrapnel rained through miasma of poison fumes.

I talked with wounded men. "We did our duty, that's all," said one. "Only towards God."

German prisoners admit being vastly surprised at the showing of the American troops. One said their officers had told them the Americans were mongrels and couldn't fight. "Why, you Americans act like crazy men," he added, rubbing his face. He had met a Harvard man who had lost his gun for the time being and was doing rapid execution with his fists. The Harvard man had whipped this German with his fists, and had then disappeared him.

MOSCOW IS DECLARED UNDER MARTIAL LAW.

OSKOW, Thursday, May 30.—The declaration last night of martial law in Moscow was the result, according to the order issued by Premier Lenin and War Minister Trotsky, of the Social Revolutionaries having organized a movement throughout the country which was connected with the intrigues in the Don region, the uprisings in Siberia and disorders in Buratoff and other points, where the food situation was used by the agitators to restore the capitalists and land owners to power.

The Central Executive Committee of the Soviet government has authorized the War Commissioner to prepare regulations for compulsory military service in the Moscow, Kuban, Petrograd and Don districts, limiting the recruiting to peasants and workmen.

A Bolshevik manifesto issued today says:

"At last, heroic efforts are necessary. The enemies of the people have raised their heads too early."

ROBBERIES.

TELEGRAPH UNION LEADER DEFIES THE GOVERNMENT.

CHICAGO, June 9.—S. J. Koenekamp, president of the Commercial Telegraphers Union of America, admitted today that he had recently been summoned before the Hinton G. Clabaugh, local chief of the bureau of investigation of the Federal Department of Justice, and questioned as to his intentions of attempting to tie up Western Union and Postal telegraph wire traffic by calling a strike of the employees of the two companies.

"I told Mr. Clabaugh," said Mr. Koenekamp, "that it was my intention to call such a strike, and that I was going to do all in my power to tie up the traffic of the two companies. I also told him that he was powerless to stop me and he admitted that such was the case."

Koenekamp's statement was made this afternoon at a mass meeting of the union.

PINAR DEL RIO IS SUNK OFF COAST OF VIRGINIA.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—The American steamer Pinar Del Rio was sunk by a German submarine seventy miles off the coast of Virginia yesterday morning. One of her boats, with the captain and seventeen members of the crew, is missing; another, with sixteen men, has landed on the Virginia coast.

A brief dispatch to the Navy Department tonight announcing the sinking did not say whether the ship was shelled or torpedoed. Hope is held that the missing boat has been picked up by some passing vessel or will turn up at some point along the coast.

Another U-Boat Victim.

AMERICAN BLOOD SHED IN FRANCE.

More than Seven Thousand Total Casualties for the War.

(BY A. F. NIGHT WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, June 9.—Casualties among the American Expeditionary Forces for reported by Gen. Pershing, including today's list, total 7315, the War Department announced today in making public the first of regular weekly summaries of casualties. Deaths in action and from wounds, disease, accidents and all other causes numbered 2937, while 4048 men have been wounded and 342 are missing in action, including men held prisoners in Germany.

The department's recapitulation follows:

Killed in action (including 284 at sea), 1599.
Died of wounds, 116.
Died of disease, 1192.
Died of accidents and other causes, 292.
Wounded in action, 4048.
Missing in action (including prisoners), 342.
Total, 7315.

ON WEST FRONT.

SUMMARY FOR 24 HOURS.

The armies of Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria again are hitting the Allied line in a new offensive, with Paris apparently their objective, says the Associated Press.

Between Montdidier and Noyon, over a front of about twenty miles, preceded by a heavy bombardment with shells and noxious gases, the enemy's initial maneuver evidently had in view the bending back of the Allied front toward the town of St. Just, on the northern wing and toward the railroad junction of Compiègne on the southern flank, cutting the Oise River and driving southwest toward the French capital.

The French troops are resisting the impact with their usual valor, but the Germans are on their right, and in the center have been able to penetrate the line for distances ranging from two-thirds of a mile south of Montdidier to about a mile and a half miles at Reims-sur-Matz. In the center, Thionville to Noyon, the Allied line is holding strongly.

If success should rest with the enemy on the new battle front, it possibly might have affected the stability of the line of the defenders from the Oise to the Marne and compel a falling back westward from the Oise to the region of the Marne north of Chateau Thierry in order to straighten out the deep salient that would then, projected toward the Bois de Belleau sector as its apex.

The Allied commanders, it is assumed, are not taking any chances with the new offensive. Comparative quiet prevails in the region of the Marne, and on that portion of the line in Flanders held by the British.

From the Antio region in the Piau River in the Italian theater, there have been intense artillery duels, but no infantry engagements of great importance.

POODLE DOG HOTEL IN BAY CITY RAIDED.

FAMOUS HOUSE FULL OF MEN AND WOMEN NABBED IN POLICE CLEAN-UP.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—A large number of men and women were arrested in a raid conducted by the Federal authorities, assisted by the San Francisco police moral squad, on the Poodle Dog Hotel early this morning. The Poodle Dog is one of the most famous of San Francisco's combined French restaurants and rooming-houses. It is one of the few hotels in the country which boasts of an automobile elevator which takes guests with their machines to any floor of the building free from observation from the street. Others look upon it as a place of great degree of deliberation as part of a campaign by both Federal and city authorities to "clean up the town" while the city is full of soldiers seeking entertainment.

After the authorities had taken charge of the hotel, police in plain clothes were placed behind the desk as clerks. Others took possession of the telephone switchboard, where much "evidence" was collected.

While the detainees were being taken to the police station, these calls were for refreshments. Interpreted with demands that parrot did not say whether the ship was shelled or torpedoed. Hope is held that the missing boat has been picked up by some passing vessel or will turn up at some point along the coast.

THE CITY AND ENVIRONS.

Dr. Seligman to Speak.
At a meeting of the Advertising Club at the Clark, at noon tomorrow, Dr. C. C. Seligman, pastor of Trinity Methodist Church, South, will make his last public address before leaving for France. Dr. Seligman has been elected field secretary of the Methodist Church, South, representing about 2,500,000 members. Other speakers on the Advertising Club program will be George Olinde, president of the National Paper Trade Association, and D. M. Reynolds of the Council of National Defense. The "Hundred" quartet will present several selections during the meeting. On Food Conservation.

During the week a series of demonstrations of food conservation will be given under the auspices of the Council of Defense, at No. 87 South Broadway. Leading instructors will demonstrate at 2:30 p.m. as follows: Monday, salad; Tuesday, jellies; Wednesday, local produce, including wheat substitutes, and Thursday, children's Hooverland luncheon. Consistent with the Americanization program, a demonstration, primarily for Mexicans, will be given at the Plaza Hotel, this week, on the use of non-wheat products. During the following week demonstrations in drying and salting methods of using dried vegetables, canning and balanced menus will be given.

AFFAIRS.

In Church Gardens.
One of the most brilliant of all the Red Cross events of the season will take place in the church gardens at Pasadena, Saturday. Mrs. Sherman Hoyt, whose garden parties have for years been an annual event, has decided to transform this year's party into a monster Red Cross bazaar, carnival and military ball. The date is June 15, Mrs. Schumann-Heyden's birthday, and the prima donna has volunteered to sing in the open air at the affair. Mrs. Hoyt, who has accepted an invitation to be present, and most delightful of all in the new dress, the Los Angeles and Pasadena men at Camp Kearny will be conceded special favors for the occasion.

Ruth H. Shaw and her husband, Ted Shaw, who will be one of the soldiers on special leave, will give a series of dances at the Los Angeles and Pasadena men at Camp Kearny. The dances will be there to lure the nimble dollars out of generous pockets.

The climax will come with a grand military ball at the Maryland in the evening, at which many officers from Camp Kearny, Fort MacArthur and the Naval Station at the Harbor will be present.

For the Red Cross.
A Red Cross card party will be given by the Merry Widows' Club at the home of A. C. Strathorn, No. 415 North Broadway, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Admission will be 25 cents a score card.

OSTEOPATHS BRING CONVENTION TO END.

HOLD ALL-DAY PICNIC AND BARBECUE AT DEVIL'S GATE GROUNDS.
Two hundred osteopathic physicians and surgeons and their families yesterday concluded their three-day convention with a barbecue at Devil's Gate in the Arroyo Seco. Following the barbecue for three hours the party enjoyed a scenic automobile ride throughout the mountain and canyon boulevards around Pasadena and vicinity, as well as the winding district in this city. Osteopaths from all over the United States as well as from Portland, Seattle and Phoenix have been attending the seventeenth annual convention of the California Osteopathic Association at the Gamut Club House since last Thursday.

The local College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons will hold open houses all this week and furnish free to the members a full course of post-graduate course, directed by the president of the college, Dr. Harry Forbes. The college has made arrangements to remain for the week.

A special feature of the post-graduate work will be the clinical observation. Open all week will be the car, and none clinic, the post-graduate clinic and the osteopathic clinic. Numerous difficult and complicated cases will be studied.

Dr. George Whitehouse of Chicago, who has been attending the convention, will remain over for several weeks in the event of his movement to place the osteopath on a footing with the medical physician and surgeon in military service. The latter-writing campaign to Washington representatives recently resulted in the sending of over a 100,000 letters to Congress.

A NERVOUS
BREAKDOWN

Miss Kelly Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Health.

Newark, N. J.—"For about three years I suffered from nervous breakdown and was so weak I could hardly stand, and had headaches every day. I tried everything I could think of and was under a physician's care for two years. A girl friend had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and she told me about it. From the first day I took it I began to feel better and now I am well and able to do most any kind of work. I have been recommending the Compound ever since and give you my permission to publish this letter."—Miss Flo Kelly, 476 So. 14th St., Newark, N. J.

The reason this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, was so successful in Miss Kelly's case was because it went to the root of her trouble, restored her to good healthy condition and as a result her nervousness disappeared.

STRIKES FRESH NOTE.

LAI'S COMEDY AT MOROSCO IS DIFFERENT.

By Henry Christen Warnack.

One false note mags the high humor and vigor of Jack Lai's unusual and worth-while comedy, "One of Us," which was given a superb production at the Morosco yesterday afternoon. We are spellbound by the first act, which is ten years ahead of its time in its naked revelation of the thing it sets forth; and the last act is nothing short of cruelty to animals and audiences when it steps back twenty years into conventional melodrama of obscure past times.

Anybody and everybody who suggests any particular change in Act I must be arrested under the Espionage Act and shot without trial. Better first acts are not made and must not be, or the public will be ruined

for all future comedy.

This act has life. It has pictures, color and the right sort in its blood.

It breathes like a giant. It pulls like a big engine making the grade of the Glorietta Range. It plants the underworld like a Rodin statue, and it is vivid without being sordid and merciless without flouting the law.

In that act, you do not guess—

everybody in it is a real character

body in it speaks his own mind.

In the first half of Act II we have an entire scene of the last half of minutes between two persons, the man and the woman lead. This is the most beautiful scene in the play.

When the curtain goes down on that scene, the act should end there, and the badger came in the last half of the second act should be Act III, and should close the show.

When the rich young man who honestly loves a young woman who loves him under an alias and after a fashion returns and finds her truders in his home, which is his wife's flat, it is time for a showdown to his wife and to the world

wait a whole act for it, and then have

it take place with sorrowful continuity in a place where it doesn't belong.

All of Act III must be forgotten.

It is expensive, beautiful and useful.

What for all, it is not comedy, but more than it is comedy to have a rather amusing and not wholly fortunate person give the girl a Bible.

There is about as much humor in that Bible as there is in a dictionary.

Fortunately the play is as good

in proportion as that division of Act II into two acts and the elimination of the third can readily be made without affecting the performance in the slightest.

It is not that the play as it stands is not worth seeing, but that it is a big, fine entertainment in its present form. The point is that it is not to be and it is not to be with the palpable limitations of the last half of the second act, and it is no rare comedy to be with the melodrama of Act III.

Few plays that need sharp revision are half so worth it as this one. Whether its theme is comedy or tragedy, it is a play that depends upon the viewpoint. If we take it that the preachment of the play is not sincere and that the crooks only seek to be let alone because they see no sincerity in those who pretend to desire their reform and do not believe that they have a chance at any other kind of life,

then the argument is a good one.

It is both consistent and forceful; it is an argument based on the hardness of criminals is very much of a pose and that their feelings are not have not been killed out, but are pretty close to the surface and are ready to blossom at the least encouragement. It is not wholly credible to the average mind that a young man of position, education and wealth would accept a woman of the cabarets as a wife, but on the other hand, neither of us has been

LASKY BENEFIT FOR SOLDIER BOYS IS HUGE SUCCESS.

By Grace Kingsley.

Tremendous financial success attended the show given at the Lasky studio last Saturday night, by various members of the acting profession,

for the benefit of the families of United States soldiers and sailors, who formerly were members of the Lasky organization, and the amount ing to nearly $5000 was taken in,

and as all the articles sold were dominated, and as many likewise donated their services, said sum was clear.

Many articles were auctioned off.

Among others, Clara Kimball Young, who appeared in evening dress and wearing a magnificent hat, auctioned off her wearing apparel, delivering the hat and hand, and, as a surprise,

thereafter retiring behind a screen,

over the top of which she sold her dress and some other garments, and whence she emerged following the sale, mysteriously clad in street clothes. Charles K. Myers, a well-known actor, sold a pair of shoes for a bit of lingerie for $50, and thereafter more it about his neck.

Douglas Fairbanks offered to box

Kid McCoy, but the fight closed after the second round for the simple reason that Mr. Fairbanks, in the heat of the excitement, had thrown in money to the amount of about $200—up to the point, in fact, when the footlights glared on the two stream beyond which her candy booth was situated fell in owing to the heavy traffic.

The bar, which was presided over by William S. Hart, and his cowboys, took in a small fortune, and Sister

Mamie Hart sat at the bar, her guardian angel to see that nobody drank too much, but even at that time, the bar was a success. An-
